Lost and Found

Leeza liked to pick flowers. She wanted to pick flowers for her teacher. Leeza picked a colorful bunch of flowers from the field. She laid the flowers on the porch. Later that day, the flowers were missing. Leeza looked in the kitchen and saw her flowers. Someone had put the flowers in a vase. Mom walked in and said, "Thank you for the flowers, Leeza. They are so pretty!" Leeza did not tell Mom that the flowers were for her teacher. She was happy that Mom liked the flowers.

1. Who did Leeza pick the flowers for?
   - ○ Mom
   - ○ her teacher
   - ○ her friend
2. Who put the flowers in a vase?
   - ○ Leeza's dad
   - ○ Leeza's mom
   - ○ Leeza's teacher
3. In this passage, what was lost and then found?
   - ○ the flowers
   - ○ a vase
   - ○ Leeza's dog

Answers

1. Who did Leeza pick the flowers for?
   - ○ Mom
   - ✓ her teacher
   - ○ her friend
2. Who put the flowers in a vase?
   - ○ Leeza's dad
   - ✓ Leeza's mom
   - ○ Leeza's teacher
3. In this passage, what was lost and then found?
   - ✓ the flowers
   - ○ a vase
   - ○ Leeza's dog